

Dr. Anandam Gopinathan, an alumnus of JIPMER Pondicherry, had spent more than 30 years in schools in India and the Middle East as Medical Officer, with focus on various academic issues in children and problems related to Learning Disability and Nutrition.

She was a columnist in The Khaleej Times, writing on various topics related to children's health, apart from working at the Department of Health and Medical Services, UAE.

She was the Medical Officer in charge at Alpha Pain and Palliative Care Center, Trichur, for close to a decade.

She is currently the Head of Palliative Care, at Raksha Healthcare Solutions, which provides a range of healthcare services, based in Trichur.